Ginny Hawes

CONCEPT ART AWARDS
JURADO 2023

Ginny Hawes is an Animation designer with thirty-three years of experience. She has designed for most of the major television animation studios.

She studied character animation at CalArts from 1984-88 under the extraordinary tutelage of Bob Winquist, T. Hee, Hal Ambro, Bob McCrea, Louis Gadal, Ray Aragon and Mike Giaimo.

Her journey in animation began at Hanna-Barbera in 1989 followed by creative adventures at Walt Disney, Universal, Rough Draft, Walt Disney, Cartoon Network, Paramount, Nickelodeon, DreamWorks and more. From “Don Coyote” and “Addams Family”, to “Timon & Pumbaa”, “Hercules”, “Star Wars Clone Wars, “SpongeBob SquarePants” and “Trollstopia”. Every production, large or small, brought new lessons, new challenges and new friends.

2015 found Ginny and her young daughter beginning a new season in life. First grade loomed and devoting more time to her daughter a primary goal. To achieve multiple goals as a single mom she upped sticks and moved to Washington state and currently designs remotely. At first this was novel, then came COVID.

As an artist who enjoys all aspects of the creative process she encourages you to contact her if you are in need of an experienced and talented crew member to achieve your production goals.
