Imogene Chayes

CONCEPT ART AWARDS

Imogene Chayes is a prolific San Francisco based concept artist and illustrator, working exclusively in live action film and TV costume design. Costume illustration and concept art is her number one passion. It is all she does, and all she ever wants to do. Her educational background is from The Fashion Institute of Design and Merchandising and Gnomon School of Visual Effects. Her combined knowledge of clothing design/construction, as well as visual arts, made her particularly well suited for the role of a costume concept artist. Her favorite part about being a costume concept artist is that she gets to bring to life the brilliant designs of some of the most legendary costume designers in the business, including, but not limited to, Ngila Dickson, Ann Foley, Marlene Stewart, and Jenny Eagan. She was also lucky enough to spend over a year working with the team at Marvel Studios Visual Development, where she got to contribute to projects such as Hawkeye, Ms. Marvel, Moonknight, and She-Hulk: Attorney at Law. Some of her more recent projects include Madame Web, Godzilla vs Kong: The New Empire, Agatha, the Moana live action remake, and The Last of Us: S2. Besides her career as a concept artist, Imogene's life revolves around her fine artist husband, Felix Macnee (@felixmacnee), her feline children, Roxie and Zelda, and her extensive skin care routine.
