Sunmin Inn

You can call me Sunmin.

My specialty is in exploring new styles, throwing a ton of ideas to see what sticks, and designing both characters and environments. You want to try something fresh, story oriented, ‘out there’, and fast? Then I’m your gal.

Although my work has mainly resided in animated films, I’ve also worked in themed experiences, Comics, Commercials, merchandise, VR content, Youtube and more.

I’ve just finished Art Directing Netflix animation’s feature Ultraman Rising slated for 2024 summer.
