Tuna Bora

Tuna (b. Istanbul) is an award-winning illustrator/animation director, based in Los Angeles, CA. They specialize in emerging media, with a focus on connection, norms, and identity.

They are best known for their distinctive style that transcends classic distinctions between narrative and experience design, particularly as the production designer of Pearl (VR), and creator/director of Little Red (AR) on the Wonderscope app. Meanwhile, they specialize in positively existential talks on colour, creative psychology, design, and their 8+ year practice of publishing personal work on a daily basis.

Their clients include Google, Netflix, FX, Dreamworks, Disney, Sony, Adobe, Nike, Coca Cola, and Buck. They are currently focused on content development and new media.
