DUAL DEGREE AGREEMENT between

Universidad Complutense de Madrid
Faculty of Economics and Business (FCCEE)
Spain
(Referred to as UCM-FCCEE)

and

Hochschule für Wirtschaft und Recht Berlin/
Berlin School of Economics and Law,
Germany
(Referred to as HWR Berlin)

Mr. Joaquín Goyache Goñi, Rector of the Universidad Complutense de Madrid (hereinafter "UCM"), pursuant to the authority granted according to Decree 61/2023, June 7th, 2023, published by the Official Journal (BOCM) of the Madrid Autonomous Community, June 9th, 2023, of the one part, and, Prof. Dr. Jens Hermsdorf, President, acting in the name of on behalf of the Hochschule für Wirtschaft und Recht Berlin, of the other part.

Both parties recognize herein the legal capacity of all those intervening to formalize this agreement and for this purpose,

AGREE

To sign this Agreement, which shall be governed by the following clauses:

ARTICLE 1 – Agreement Objectives

The aim of this cooperation is to provide students from UCM-FCCEE and HWR Berlin participating in the exchange program the opportunity to acquire simultaneously the academic degree Bachelor of HWR Berlin (B.A. Business Administration) and the academic degree Bachelor of UCM-FCCEE (Bachelor in Business Administration) at the same time through the mutual recognition of the dual degree subjects. The term "exchange" henceforth includes participation in this programme.

ARTICLE 2 – Extension of the Agreement

This agreement can be extended in the following areas:

- Exchange of academic staff / faculty members to teach.
- Organisation of joint projects and research programmes.
- Short-term academic programmes / study visits for students.
- Blended and/or online learning programmes.

ARTICLE 3 – Nomination of Exchange Students

3.1 Each home institution will nominate its candidates for this programme.

3.2 Students who wish to enter the international dual degree programme must make a formal application to the liaison officer at the home institution for admission to the host institution. They must also meet the requirements for exchange student admission to the home institution. It is the responsibility of the liaison officer of the home institution to forward the application documents to the host institution. The deadline for receipt of application documents by the host university is May 31st for both institutions, preceding the academic year in which the dual degree programme of the student begins, unless an alternative date is agreed upon by the parties.

3.3 Students from the home institution registered for the dual degree programme will be eligible to participate in this programme at the host institution provided they meet the following minimum conditions:
a) Two academic years of undergraduate studies in the field of Business Administration and Management,
b) B2 level in English language,
c) B1 level in German language for UCM students
d) B1 level in Spanish language for the HWR Berlin students.
e) Commitment to finish their studies within 4 years, extendable to five years. Otherwise, they should leave the dual degree programme and continue their studies outside this agreement.

ARTICLE 4- Conditions of Participation

4.1 UCM-FCCEE will send students to HWR Berlin enrolled in the bachelor programme "Business Administration" who must have completed their first two years of their bachelor programme at the UCM-FCCEE. These students will be admitted to HWR Berlin in the bachelor programme (English stream) of "Business Administration". These students will study the fifth, sixth and seventh semesters of their studies in Germany.

4.2 HWR Berlin will send students to UCM-FCCEE enrolled in the "International Business Administration Exchange" programme who must have completed their first two years of their bachelor programme at HWR Berlin. These students will be admitted to UCM-FCCEE in the bachelor programme "Business Administration" within its English group. These students will study the fifth, sixth and seventh semesters of their studies in Spain.

4.3 The students of this dual degree programme will have the status of Erasmus exchange students during the first year (fifth and sixth semesters) of stay in the host institution.

ARTICLE 5 – Curriculum

Students from UCM and HWR Berlin will study according to the course plans specified in the attached appendixes:

Appendix 1: Course Plan for HWR Berlin students at UCM
Appendix 2: Course Plan for UCM students at HWR Berlin
Appendix 3: Course Plan outlining mutual recognition of credits

5.1. Students from UCM-FCCEE will complete 65 ECTS at HWR Berlin as outlined in the course plan in Appendix 2. In the seventh semester, students from UCM-FCCEE will complete their company internship in Germany under the regulation of the HWR Berlin. These credits will be recognised as outlined in Appendix 3. In the eighth semester, UCM-FCCEE students will return to UCM and complete their course plan according to Appendix 3.

5.2. Students from HWR Berlin will complete 66 ECTS at UCM as outlined in the course plan in Appendix 1. In the seventh semester, students from HWR Berlin will complete their company internship in Spain under the regulation of UCM. These credits will be recognised as outlined in Appendix 3. In the eighth semester, HWR Berlin students will return to HWR Berlin and complete their study plan according to Appendix 3.

5.3. All students will register, write, and present their Bachelor's thesis at the UCM-FCCEE to obtain the "Business Administration" Degree at the UCM in their final semester.

ARTICLE 6 - Granting of Degrees

It is recognised and accepted by both institutions that the visiting students will be granted the degree from the partner institution only after receiving the degree of their home institution and obtaining a minimum of 240 ECTS credits, meeting all the requirements of each institution.

In the case of the UCM-FCCEE it is the Bachelor's degree in Business Administration and in the case of the HWR Berlin it is the Bachelor's degree in Business Administration.

ARTICLE 7 – Number of Students

The maximum number of students in each academic year to be exchanged for the dual-degree agreement will be five (5) from UCM-FCCEE and five (5) from HWR Berlin. The number of students can be changed upon mutual agreement based on experience gathered and student demand.

ARTICLE 8 – Selection process at the sending institution

Each university shall be responsible for selecting nominees to the exchange, with the final responsibility for admission resting with the receiving institution which will inform the partner university of its requirements in due time.

The pre-selection and admission procedure will be established by the regulations of each university.

Acceptance into the exchange programme is subject to approval by the host institution. Upon receipt of such approval, the host institution shall notify the home institution of acceptance and begin processing any needed visas and enrolment forms. Students will receive acceptance letters directly from the host university upon successfully completing the registration procedure.

ARTICLE 9 – Academic Regulations

Students from each university studying abroad under the dual degree agreement shall be subject to the same rules and regulations concerning social and academic behaviour as local students.

a. Students from UCM-FCCEE and HWR Berlin will be required to take examinations in the courses they participated in. The modalities of these examinations will be determined according to the home university's examination regulations. The achievements of every exchange student will be reported at the end of the exchange period by each university.

b. In addition to the standard transcripts, UCM-FCCEE and HWR Berlin will provide the instructor's comments if so requested by the other institution.

ARTICLE 10 - Recognition of credits

10.1 UCM students: UCM will recognise all credits awarded by HWR Berlin based on the mutual credit recognition table outlined in Appendix 3. The academic recognition will become effective when UCM receives the official transcript from HWR Berlin at the end of the academic year. In addition, UCM will recognise the credits awarded for the company internship as outlined in Appendix 3. HWR Berlin will recognise all credits earned at UCM in order to award the HWR Berlin bachelor degree in "Business Administration".

10.2 HWR Berlin students: UCM will recognise the credits awarded by HWR Berlin from the first two years, as outlined in Appendix 3, at the end of the third year, once the HWR Berlin students apply for the "Recognition of Foreign Qualifications". HWR Berlin students can thereafter register as a UCM student for his/her fourth year. Upon acceptance by UCM, the courses taken in the third year at UCM will be added to the student's file. UCM will recognise the credits awarded by HWR Berlin for the final year based on a Learning Agreement with the courses outlined in Appendix 3.

ARTICLE 11 - Registration

UCM-FCCEE students will remain enrolled at UCM during the complete 4 years. They will have the status of Erasmus student during the fifth and sixth semesters and the status of exchange students on bilateral agreement basis during their remaining exchange period at HWR Berlin. UCM-FCCEE students will be enrolled as a HWR Berlin student upon registration at HWR Berlin in their 3rd year. They will remain enrolled at HWR Berlin until they finish their studies at UCM.

HWR Berlin Students will remain enrolled at HWR Berlin during the complete 4 years. During their 3rd year at UCM, they will have the status of Erasmus student. HWR Berlin students can only register at UCM once they have been officially admitted by the Vice-Rectorate of Students after completing their academic year (3rd year of studies) at UCM via the application for the recognition of foreign qualification. In their 4th year, HWR students will remain enrolled at UCM with the additional status of exchange students on bilateral agreement basis, while completing their company internship in Spain and their final semester at HWR Berlin.

ARTICLE 12 – Tuition fees and other fees

Participating students from both universities must pay the tuition, mandatory fees for the application and registration to their home institution and then study at the other institution without further charge for these concepts.
Exceptions may be special labs, materials, field trips, and other fees charged to students enrolled in specific classes that are not compulsory under the context of this dual degree programme.

Students from both institutions, HWR Berlin and UCM-FCCEE, shall pay the applicable contributions/administrative fees to the respective host institutions according to the requirements of each university.

Students from HWR Berlin arriving at UCM-FCCEE in their third year will be awarded a scholarship, where 75% of the total amount of the administration fees established by-law approved by the Community of Madrid for the recognition of the credits awarded from HWR Berlin will be waived. This means that the students only have to pay 25% of the afore-mentioned administration fees. Furthermore, HWR Berlin students will not have to pay fees for the credits taken at the UCM as Erasmus international mobility students or Mobility by agreement students during their 5th, 6th, and 7th semester. Not covered by the scholarship are the credits awarded for the bachelor thesis. HWR Berlin students shall pay 100% of the recognition fees awarded for their Bachelor's thesis enrolment (6 ECTS) at UCM-FCCEE.

Under the terms of this agreement, UCM-FCCEE will guarantee the above-mentioned scholarship for all students admitted into the dual degree program. The number of these scholarships will depend on the number of students enrolled in the program in each academic year, following all the academic and administrative regulations.

Students from UCM-FCCEE, arriving at HWR Berlin in their 3rd year shall pay the regular student contributions which also includes the mandatory travel pass (Semesterticket), Student Union contribution and Student Council fees from the start of their studies at HWR Berlin in the third year until the end of their studies after the 8th semester at the end of the 4th year (travel pass only during the exchange period).

HWR Berlin students are also eligible for all UCM tuition benefits and deferrals upon providing official confirmation.

ARTICLE 13 - Accommodation

The cost of housing and board will be borne by the exchange participants. However, each institution will provide the best efforts to help exchange students find suitable accommodation.

Students must have sufficient personal funds to cover all expenses not covered by their home or host institutions.

ARTICLE 14 – Health Insurance

Students on dual degree exchange are responsible for taking out medical/health insurance before leaving their home country. Any medical/health costs, which may not be covered by insurance, shall be borne by the students. All non-EU students are required to purchase insurance in the country of their destination.

ARTICLE 15 - Costs

Students from UCM-FCCEE and HWR Berlin shall pay for their travel costs, living expenses, books and supplies, as well as the insurance required for the duration of their stay at the host institution. Refunds for students who discontinue the program prematurely are generally not available.

ARTICLE 16 - Contacts

Each institution shall designate a person and an office responsible for the administration of this exchange. For UCM-FCCEE, this contact shall be the International Office of the FCCEE. For HWR Berlin, this contact shall be the International Office.

ARTICLE 17 – Modification

Any substantial modification to this Agreement shall be made in writing by mutual consent of the Parties and shall be executed in the form of a written addendum and shall be incorporated as an addendum thereto. Adaptations related to changes in the subjects offered in each curriculum are excluded from these modifications.

At the end of each academic year, HWR Berlin and UCM-FCCEE shall jointly review and evaluate the academic and administrative processes arising from the implementation of this Agreement and, where appropriate, the Parties may update or adjust the Study Plan, taking into account the evolution and updating of the academic offerings of each institution, provided that such modifications do not affect the rights acquired by students already enrolled.

ARTICLE 18 – Termination

This Agreement may be terminated for any of the following reasons:
a) A material breach by either Party of the obligations undertaken hereunder.
b) The subsequent impossibility of fulfilling the purpose of this Agreement.
c) Expiration of the term of this Agreement.
d) Mutual consent between the Parties, formalized in writing.
e) Unilateral termination by either Party, upon written notice given at least six (6) months prior to expected termination date.
f) Any other cause, mutually agreed upon by the Parties, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

The termination of the Agreement shall not affect students who, at the time of termination, are nominated and enrolled in the double degree programme, who may complete their studies under the same academic and administrative conditions provided for in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 19 – Dispute Resolution

Any disputes or contentious issues that may arise in relation to the interpretation, modification, execution, termination or effects of this Agreement shall be resolved amicably, through direct negotiation and mutual agreement between the parties

ARTICLE 20 – Term and Renewal

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the last signature, once it has been approved by the competent authorities, and shall remain in force for a period of four (4) years.

And, as proof of agreement, the parties hereby sign this Agreement in two copies with identical validity.
