

1. Congress Goals

The Conference is jointly organized by the Real Colegio Complutense, the Institute for Global Law and Policy (Harvard Law School) and the Department of Commercial Law at the UCM. The course focuses on the analysis and debate about some of the key issues in the current regulation on arbitration, banking and corporate governance comparing the European experience (with special reference to the Spanish situation) with the U.S., as well as the new trends on insolvency regulation. The structure of the Conference intends to promote a fruitful exchange among speakers and provide participants with relevant information and materials.

2. Target Audience

The Conference was conceived considering the participants' background, mainly young researchers, Faculty and lawyers with expertise in the relevant topics. English language proficiency is required for ensuring a proper materials utilization and attendance as such.

3. Materials

Both an abridged version as well as materials will be provided to participants. Also, after the Conference has taken place, the lectures and participations of attendants will be made available as working papers of the Commercial Law Department (UCM).

4. Speakers and Conferences

The conference will count on the participation of speakers from both Harvard Law School and Complutense University, well known for their contributions in the areas assigned. The conferences are conducted in Spanish and English, respectively, with no interpretation services.

5. Venue
