

PHD in English Linguistic UCM

Research topic

- Candidates should carefully select a research topic to be adequately and fully developed under the guide of supervisors. As a PhD dissertation is probably the longest and most complicated project candidates have completed to date, false starts, writing difficulties or unexpected results demanding further reading, the redefinition of the topic and regular revisions may occur.
- In order to overcome the above-mentioned challenges in a gradual and controlled way, the PhD-EngLin-UCM entails a training plan contributing to the candidate's adequate academic achievement, their proficiency in English, the completion of their dissertations and their future professional careers.
- Tasks planned will also meet the specific needs of students eager to be more actively involved in their training process.
