

UCM Cultural Activities

The Complutense University of Madrid is a major cultural asset that provides multiple opportunities to get involved in cultural activities and pursue your hobbies and interests. The Vice-Rector for Extra-Curricular Activities organizes a wide variety of activities, among which you will find one that interests you.

ARTS: if you are interested in art, you have a great opportunity to enjoy it at the Complutense Art Center (c arte c) at 2, Juan Herrera Avenue. The Center provides a space for emerging artists, hosting interesting national and international exhibitions.

MUSEUMS: If you're curious about scientific culture, the UCM offers the opportunity to get to know it through a network of Museums and Scientific Collections. Our cultural and scientific heritage allow us to promote science and art history among the university community and anyone else who is interested in these subjects

LITERATURE: If your interest lies in literary arts, there is a good chance that you will participate in the literary festival that takes place during Complutense Literary Week with a multitude of activities, meetings and workshops. In addition, all Spanish speaking students are allowed to submit applications for the Annual Literary Awards Competition.

THEATRE: Theatergoers can become a member and get involved in one of the university theatre groups, or simply enjoy The Theatre Festival, theatre shows and monologues performances.

MUSIC: UCM gives music lovers the opportunity to join one of the Complutense music bands: Symphonic Orchestra, Big-band, Gospel Choir, Choir, Santo Tomas' Singers and Microcosm's Choir. In addition, you can enjoy a wide range of musical activities, such as the AIEnRUTa Jazz 2014 concert series, Aienruta jazz, Flamenco Dancers en route, Aienruta Classic Music, Sonor Ensemble, Royal Theatre workshops, Opera season and OSUCM Concerts.

MUSICAL FESTIVALS: Some of the top festivals in the world take place in our university, such as Universimad, Madgarden or DCODE.

Sign up to receive notifications about upcoming events and recreational activities:

https://www.ucm.es/cultura_2