

Workshop on Development of peripheral economies: the importance of economic ideas in historical perspective, 26-27 November 2018, ICEI, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Registration: <https://goo.gl/forms/4zUt3bYrqC9hLq1> (for attendance certificate)

DATE 26/11:

MORNING SESSIONS (Location: Centro de Gestión near ICEI: Aula 5, Seminario)

10:15, Welcome Address: Isabel Alvarez); Estrella Trincado (UCM)

10:30-11:10, Chinese debates on economic development in the 1920s-1940s

Olga Borokh (Institute of Far Eastern Studies, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow)

Comment: Clara Belén García

11:10 – 11:50, Economic development and economics in Japan, from 1870 to 1940

Jou Ishii (Kanto Gakuin University)

Comment: Olga Borokh

Coffee break: 11:50-12:10 Centro de Gestión- Aula 7

12:10-12:50, The strive for progress: economic development as the task for Russian economic thought of the 19th – 20th centuries

Denis Melnik and Anton Galeev (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Moscow)

Comment: Vladimir Avtonomov

AFTERNOON SESSIONS (Location: Sala de Juntas-ICEI).

14:40-15:20, Economic Development in Spain from the 19th century industrialization debates to the opening of the economy in the mid-1970s

Estrella Trincado and Elena Gallego (Universidad Complutense de Madrid)

Comment: Manuel Santos

15:20-16:00, An alternative structuralist interpretation of the economic 'golden era' in Argentina, 1870–1930

Fabian Amico (UMET, Buenos Aires) and Numa Mazat (Institute of Economics, Federal University of Rio de Janeiro)

Comment: Gabriel Brondino

16:20-17:00, The rise and fall of economic development preoccupations in Argentina and the turn to neoliberalism in the 1970s

Gabriel Brondino (CONICET) and Andrés Lazzarini (UFRJ; CONICET)

Comment: Numa Mazat

Date 27/11:

Location: Sala de Juntas-ICEI

9:30-10:10, Economic Policy in XIX century's Brazil

Rita Almico (Universidade Federal Fluminense, Brazil)

Comment: Andres Lazzarini

10:10-10:50, The presence of European economic thought in Brazil and their ideas on common savings

Luiz Fernando Saraiva (Universidade Federal Fluminense, Brazil)

Comment: Baruc Jimenez

Coffee break: 10:50-11:20, coffee break (ICEI)

11:20-12:00, Political Economics and Possibilism: Towards an Open Notion of Development

Andrés M. Guiot-Isaac (University of Oxford)

Comment: Trincado, Melnik, Lazzarini

12:00-12:40, Degree of abstraction in development economics

Vladimir Avtonomov (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Moscow), Primakov Institute of World Economy and International Relations, Russian Academy of Sciences, Moscow)

Comment: Rafael Fernández

12:40-13:40, General discussion: Towards a global network of historians of thought and development economists and future steps after the workshop

