

PHD in English Linguistics UCM

Information for international students. (Year 2013) Updated info here

A) STUDENTS HOLDING FOREIGN DEGREES OFFICIALLY VALIDATED BY THE SPANISH AUTHORITY (MINISTERIO DE EDUCACIÓN, CULTURA Y DEPORTE). THESE CANDIDATES MUST SUBMIT THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS:

1. Photocopy of candidate's valid Spanish Identity Card or passport
2. Photocopy of Certificate of Master's Degree (or certificate of expected graduation)
3. Certificate of Spanish validation of the foreign degree
4. Candidate's CV, including academic and professional information (document or supporting evidence is required)
5. Record of achievement
6. Programme Application Form
7. Letter of motivation or draft of thesis proposal
8. B-2 Level of Spanish and C-1 Level of English (certificate or supporting evidence required)

Click here for further information on validation of studies.

Applications are submitted online. So, required documents should be scanned.

B) STUDENTS HOLDING NON SPANISH, NON-OFFICIALLY VALIDATED DEGREES:

B.1) Students holding a European Higher Education Area (EHEA) Degree. These candidates must submit the following documents:

1. Photocopy of candidate's valid Spanish Identity Card or passport
2. Photocopy of Certificate of Master's Degree (or certificate of expected graduation)
3. Detailed Master's Record of achievement
4. Original or authenticated translation of European recognition of qualifications or Certificate from university of origin indicating that the Degree obtained would enable the candidate to enrol for PhD education programmes. (Click here for further info on translations).
5. Candidate's CV, including academic and professional information (document or supporting evidence is required)
6. Programme Application Form
7. Letter of motivation or draft of thesis proposal
8. B-2 Level of Spanish and C-1 Level of English(certificate or supporting evidence required)

Applications are submitted online. So, required documents should be scanned

B.2) Students holding a non-European Higher Education Area (EHEA) Degree: These candidates must submit the following documents:

1. Photocopy of candidate's valid Spanish Identity Card or passport
2. Accreditation of Master's Degree through:

*Certificate of Spanish Validation of Degree (Ministerio de Educación, Cultura y Deporte). Click here for further information on validation of studies, or

*UCM Access Permission to PhD education programmes. E-mail: convalid@rect.ucm.es

3. Candidate's CV, including academic and professional information (document or supporting evidence is required)
4. Programme Application Form
5. Letter of motivation or draft of thesis proposal
6. B-2 Level of Spanish and C-1 Level of English(certificate or supporting evidence required)

Applications are submitted online. So, required documents should be scanned.