

PhD English Linguistics

Training Activities

Writing a book review for publishing:

- Optional task.
- Language: English
- Duration: 10 hours
- Schedule: semestre 3 or 4
- Control: Presentation of an original literature review which meets all the requirements regarding content and formal style proper of an academic publication. (Approximately 2500-3000 words). The review shall be signed by the tutor or supervisor, shall be attached to the student's activity profile and shall be part of their annual monitoring report.
- Description: Students shall write a critical book review related to their PhD dissertation proposal. It should describe why the work is interesting for specialist readers and show the knowledge in the field of study. Formal academic style shall be required, as well as clarity in the organization of ideas, expressive conciseness and requirements of all formal academic publications.
- Outcome: Students will write a critical book review of their specialty and, together with their tutor/supervisor, they will look for appropriate channels of publication.