

PHD in English Linguistics UCM

Academic Activities

Workshop Design and Delivery

- Non-compulsory activity
- Language: English
- Duration: 8 hours
- Schedule: 5th Semester
- Evaluation: Participating students need to submit a draft work plan with distribution of topics and times as well as a scheme of qualitative evaluation of results to their supervisors or tutors. The document, signed by the student's tutor/supervisor, will be included in the student's activity record.
- Description: This activity is designed for the 3rd year students. These students will organize and give workshop presentations aimed at the strengthening and consolidation of first-year students' proposals.
- 3rd year students will actively contribute to shape up the following aspects of proposals: structure and outline, main chapters and related sub-topics; accurate identification of and clear approach to the problem under consideration; conceptual framework; investigation plan or process of data-collection.
- Results: 3rd year students will be able to demonstrate their ability to provide advice and guidance as well as share their experience with the new students, along with the ability to evaluate other's dissertations in their early stages. This experience will be a starting point for their professional academic practice.
