

What biographical discourse reveals about female childhood (1750–1900)

25 Nov 2024 (online)

12:15 - 16:30

Organised by members of the Research Project PID2020-117973GB-I00. Female childhood across borders. A Cultural Linguistics approach

PROGRAMME

- 12.15 -12.25 Introductory words
- 12.25-12.40 Paloma Tejada Caller. Promoting a focus on female childhood within English Linguistics
- 12.40-12:55 Marina Dossena & Nuria Calvo Cortés. So you think you can trust websites, eh? The case of 18C girls and their online biographers
- 12.55-13.10 Julia López Narváez. Silent voices, written lives: Unveiling female childhood in late Victorian Britain
- 13.10-13.25 Marta Nadales. Female childhood in biographical discourse: A linguistic analysis of age in the social development of nineteenth-century women (1881-1890)
- 13.25-13.50 Q&A
- 13.50-15.15 Lunch
- 15.15-15.30 Javier Ruano-García & Isabel de la Cruz-Cabanillas. Exploring Late Modern female childhood through the ODNB: possibilities & constraints
- 15.30-15.45 Blanca Fernández Soriano. Frequencies and biographies: How Corpus tools can help Cultural Linguistics
- 15.45-16.00 Ana Laura Rodríguez Redondo. Lost and Found: unearthing forgotten conceptualizations in the narratives of female childhood
- 16.00-16.30 Q&A