Wifi network

Display the list of available wireless networks in the device and select the UCM-CONGRESO network.

If this is the first time(*) you connect to the UCM-CONGRESO network, you will be asked for the network key:

Network key: congresosUCM

()If you have previously connected to the UCM-CONGRESO network with the same device, this password will be stored and it will not be necessary to enter it.*

The UCM-Congress Wireless Network authentication portal will automatically open. If it does not appear, you will have to open a Web browser and enter any URL (e.g.: <http://www.google.es>) and you will be automatically redirected to the authentication portal.

In the portal a form will appear and press the Login button:

User: excom@congreso.ucm.es

Password: meeting+13

Once the credentials have been entered, an information page will appear and the connection will be established.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Madrid's public transport Multicard

The Multicard is a non-personal, contactless, rechargeable Public Transport Card, which lasts for ten years and can be used to hold tickets.

Where to buy? Metro de Madrid automatic machines.

How much does it cost? The Madrid Multicard costs €2.50. You can buy it with the ticket of your choice.

Which tickets can you top up?

- Single valid for Metro, TFM, Metro Ligerio 1 and Metro Ligerio Oeste..
- 10 trips valid for Metro, TFM, Metro Ligerio 1, Metro Ligerio Oeste and urban and interurban buses.
- Airport Supplement, necessary to enter or exit the Airport T1-T2-T3 or Airport T4 Metro stations if travelling with a Single or 10-Trip ticket.
- Tourist Ticket.

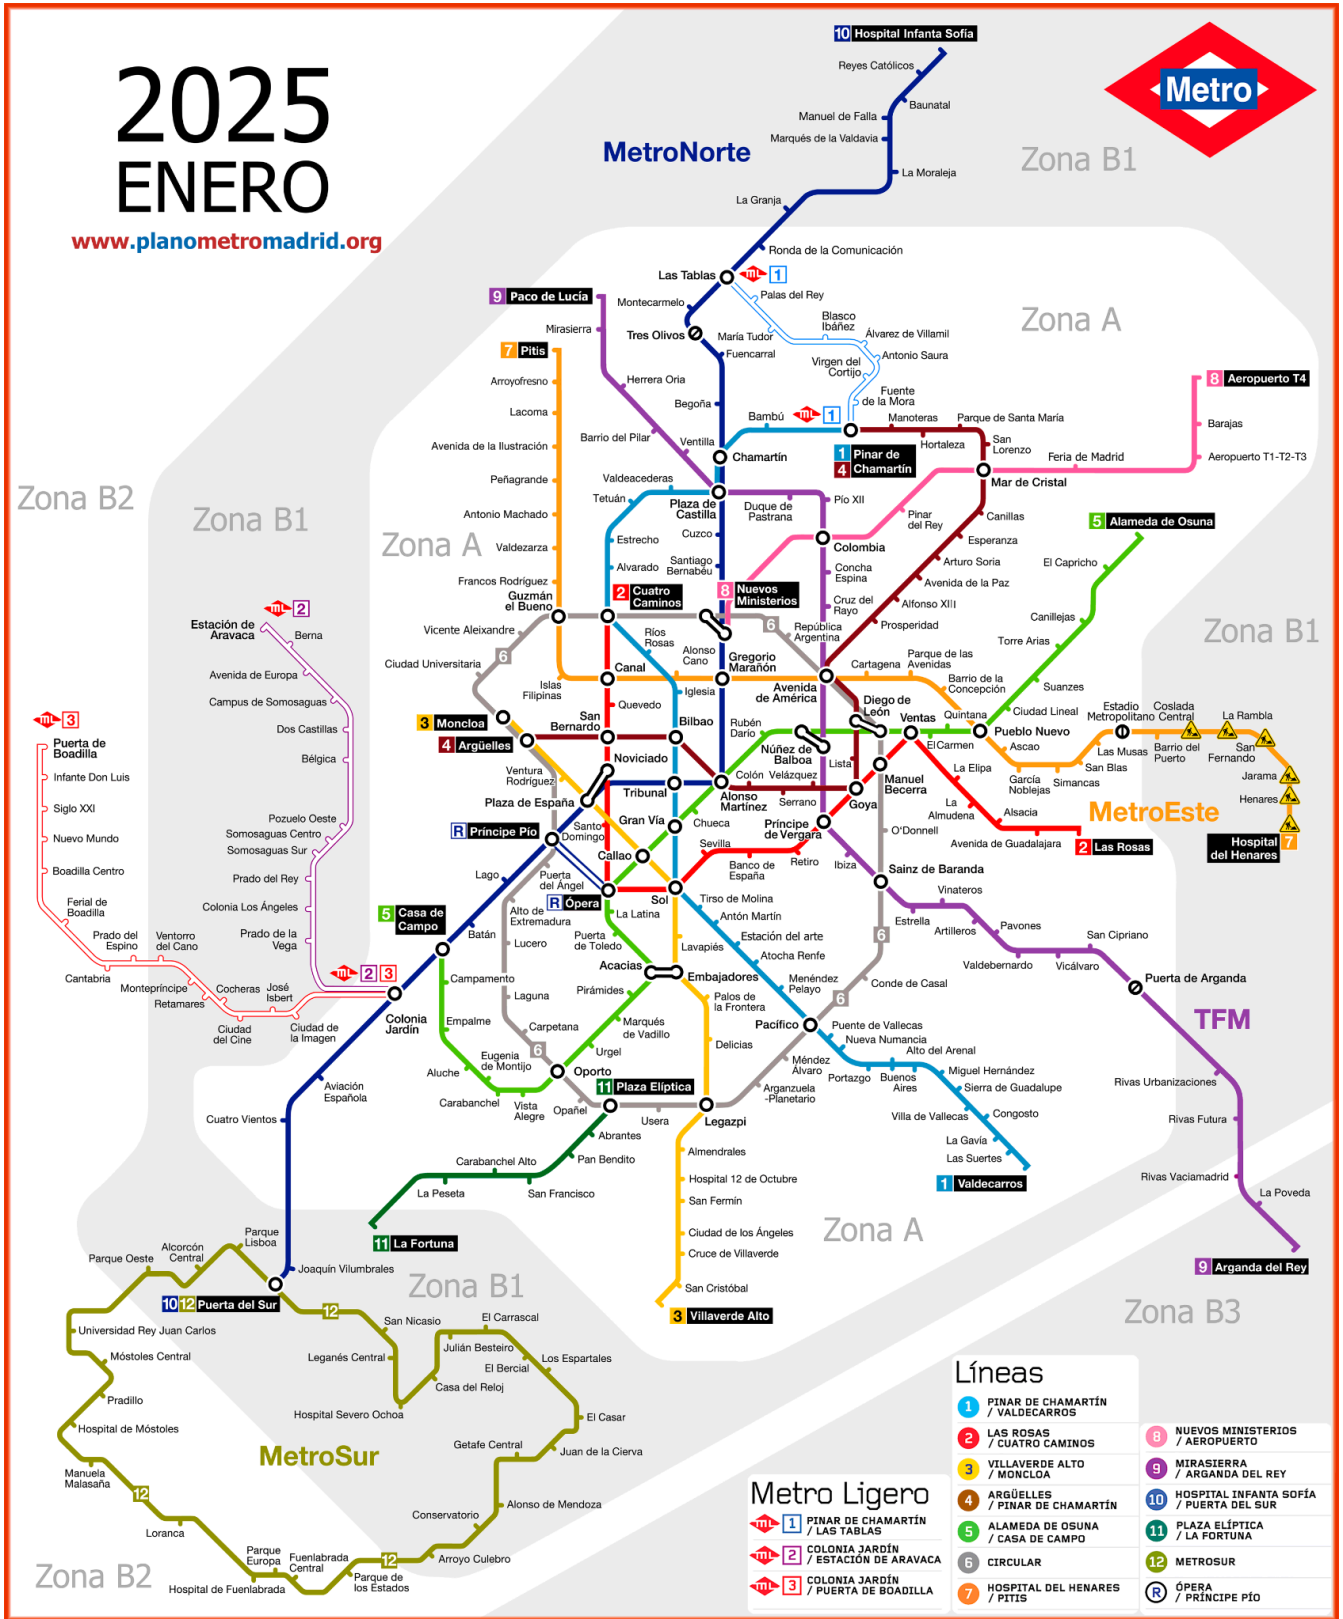

The Single and Airport Supplement tickets, once topped up to any card, need to be used on the day of purchase and are considered valid until the end of the service, not the calendar day. If you try to use them the day after they are acquired, the validators will not let them through because they are out of date.

URBAN BUS SINGLE TICKET can be bought when boarding the bus, using cash (the highest bill accepted for purchasing a bus ticket is €5) or a contactless card.*

Taxis and similar are relatively inexpensive and convenient in Madrid.
