

Spectral analysis of discrete-time quantum birth-death chains

Manuel D. de la Iglesia

This poster presents an approach to performing spectral analysis of discrete-time quantum birth-death chains using the framework of matrix-valued orthogonal polynomials. Specifically, it highlights the parallels between classical and quantum analyses, particularly through the Karlin—McGregor formula perspective. The presentation will also include illustrative examples.